

Autumn/Winter 2019 | COLOR ANALYSIS: THE NOSTALGIA ISSUE

“It is my goal to provide relevant seasonal color data collected through consumer insights and global market analysis.” -Heather Sandwall CSI Color & Trend Director

Using the feedback we received from valued customers like you, the trend and color experts at CSI are delighted to bring you an improved fourth issue of Color Analysis: The Nostalgia Issue. This issue has been adjusted to better serve designers during their palette creation process by highlighting 54 trend and validated colors, additional color data, and color evolution & direction by hue.

Your color trend palettes are displayed by product category: Women’s, Active, Intimates, Men’s, Kids and Home. In the tradition of previous editions, Color Analysis also includes our proprietary Relative Color Popularity report (RCP), offering color predictions with validation of performing colors.

Your Autumn/Winter 2019 inspirational seasonal stories include:

Global Fusion: Human connection, invention and instinct are all the common threads explored within each trend.

Art Movement: The art movement of creative influences shapes a perspective with bold statements, activism pieces political messages and worldviews.

Entwined In Nature: From deep woods to the seaside, landscapes offer a world without limits, open for generations to bring forth new inventions and emerge.

Time Traveler: Nostalgia means a wistful or excessively sentimental yearning for the return of a bygone era.

Color Analysis can also be purchased as a printed copy or electronic version (pdf-file) and with the purchase of the Color Analysis book, you also receive the trend palette in a convenient ASE - file to add to your adobe suite.

We look forward to always being a source of inspiration for your seasonal palettes. To find out more, please visit csicolors.com
