

Autumn/Winter 2015-2016 | Faraway

The frost will never take away
The beauty of the flaming pink
So young and passionate
As if the winter sun was locked preserved forever
And as the sun arrives with so much softness
The longing of the soul becomes unbearable
We dream in color and as we do
The color takes us faraway
To place somewhat familiar
But yet enchanted and surreal

“Faraway” Color Combinations

Crimson red, with its traditional charm, is the focal point in the palette, bringing elegant classical vibe, while the soft tones of aqua and pink, carry cozy wintery feel. Dusty shades of purple serve as a bridge between the deep red and the light pastel tones. Bright pink and vibrant turquoise, are playing role as important accents, making the palette more versatile and appealing.
