

Autumn/Winter 2015-2016 | Jeweled

Thousand sunsets treasured in my heart
Thousand stories of eternal love and passion

Darling gems, exotic birds
Tender leaves and gentile lilies
Weaved into an endless arabesque
In my dream arrive with blissful glory.

Graciously the light is dancing
Warming up my heart and senses.

Northern Africa's rich cultural influences, the captivating stories of past civilizations filled with glory and mystical powers, the golden sands of the Sahara desert, the craftsmanship and the ornate designs, created by the hands of old masters, the magnificence and grandeur of the ancient cities along the Nile river, all this we wanted to translate in the color palette of "Jeweled".
