

Autumn/Winter 2015-2016 | Pastoral

As we make our way deeper into the country, our eyes are drawn into a picturesque of color - luscious green fields, changing shades as the autumn season is approaching, vineyards heavy with golden grapes, marvelous trees dressed in the fall's best colors. Undeniably autumn is here with its gilded beauty. We are touched by the warmth of the season, the kindness of the elders, the chance to meet family and friends, blessed to celebrate another wonderful harvest. All this makes fall so much more than just a change in the weather. Without extravagance, without pretense, the peaceful elegance of country living brings sweet memories and feel of serene fulfillment to our hearts.

Click here for Pinterest Inspiration Board

“Pastoral” Color Combinations

Lavish shades of burgundy and purple, reminisce of late summer gardens, heavy aromatic wine, and beautiful velvety fabrics. The browns are rich with warm undertone, inspired by the colors of chocolate, earth and heavy leathers. Mossy green and deep teal, give the palette a hint of masculine charm.

