

Top ColorWall™ Colors of All Time | Blush

With data collected from 10+ years of ColorWall™ usage across more than 100 brands and retailers, we would like to present the “Top ColorWall Colors of All Time”. The colors chosen for this report were selected as top performing colors from more than 80,000 seasonal color palettes.

In times of uncertainty, it is helpful to look back on things we can count on. So now is a good time to see what colors we have relied on in past seasons.

In this series, we will present the colors by hue.

Blush

There are 5 colors in the Blush category. The fashion industry has incorporated more blush tones over the past few seasons, and it continues to grow.
